

ROB WILCOX – BIO

Rob Wilcox has spent two decades at the forefront of fighting for government accountability and transparency. He has served in key positions in consequential State of California and City of Los Angeles offices, including the Los Angeles City Controller's Office to the California Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission and the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office. He now takes that fight to the race for Los Angeles City Controller.

Rob is no stranger to the transformative ability of the Controller's office. He served as Deputy Controller for Laura Chick for over seven years. He was pivotal in providing transparency and accountability by engaging both the press and the public in demanding action from the City for the audits Controller Chick released
