

DAVID VAHEDI – BIO

David Vahedi would be the first Los Angeles City Controller to have an advanced degree in accounting. David has conducted over 350 civil and criminal audits. His criminal audits have resulted in the prosecution of people who stole taxpayer's funds. David also has 23 years of experience as a litigator and transactional attorney. Being a professional auditor and attorney, David can root out corruption on day one at city hall and eliminate waste and inefficiencies before it occurs. David served 10 years on the Westside Neighborhood Council and 8 years on the Westwood South of Santa Monica Homeowner Association. David does not accept special interest donations to maintain his independence of the entities he is responsible for auditing.
